CARBINE WINS AWARD FOR INNOVATION IN MINING AT AUSTMINE 2015

Carbine Resources Limited (ASX: CRB) is pleased to advise the Company has won the award for Innovation in Mining at the 2015 Austmine Industry conference in Brisbane.

The awards presentation celebrated the performance of a number of individuals and companies who have contributed outstanding performances in innovation and technology application to the mining sector.

Commenting on the award, Carbine Executive Director Patrick Walta said “the application of innovative technology in the redevelopment of Mount Morgan has allowed Carbine to unlock the significant metal value remaining in the tailings on site. The Company is honored to receive this award as it continues to progress the Project toward production,” he said.

The Austmine 2015 International Conference and Exhibition is a premier industry event that showcases the best of mining, equipment and technology services. The conference brings together innovative processes and products in the market with the most pressing challenges in the mining sector around the globe. Carbine's presentation to Austmine 2015 is available for viewing both on the Company's website and via the ASX.
